Mrs. Greene Literature

- 1) The purpose of the author was to inform people about what happened.
- 2) Her goal was to reach for each east, but then decided to go to Ireland.
- 3) The problems she encountered was that flames were coming through a broken weld in the manifold ring, and the edge of her wings were practically iced.
- 4) When her wings were iced she flew beneath the clouds so her wings could deice.
- 5) She follows a railroad track hoping it would lead her to the city. She landed in a meadow.
- 6) She met her hospitality and kindness of her friends in England, France, and America
